Dedication

To Miss Bernice L. Caswell, who has advised us in the publication of our Class-book, who has helped us prepare for college and the future, and who has shown us cheerfulness and patience, we gratefully and respectfully dedicate our book.

THE CLASS OF 1951

Destination—Future!

Briefing

Attention, Cadets! Your officers welcome you as new recruits to the Wakefield Rocket Aviation Base, Squadron 51.

We wish you success in the testing ordeals ahead before your take-off. The experience from the training missions will establish the foundation for your solo flight. These missions will give you a knowledge of the obstacles you will encounter on your trip. Your work will be rigorous, but you must be prepared. Your Rocketship, Oracle 51, is scheduled for departure June 7, 1951 — zero hour: 2000! You will be heading for the Planet Future!

Good luck!

Co-Pilots, PEGGY SIAS AND JOSEPH TECCE

SKYSTRICTORS

Skystructors

SEPTEMBER 8, 1947

Two hundred and sixty-five future cadets registered at the Wakefield Rocket Aviation Base. Our Commandant, Roland Kinder, welcomed us, and introduced Executive Officer Fulton, who gave us our assignments. At this point we were divided into platoons.

SEPTEMBER 9, 1947

Today we really began our classes in "basic background" before attempting to study rockets and flying. Majors Caswell, Height, Cowing, Barry, Dower, Gallop, Broderick, and Fanck, we found were in command of each department, and Tactical Officer Heavens was in charge of guidance. We also learned, early in the year, that any commissioned officer could give demerits. Gloria Day and Jimmy Galvin got the first ones.

OCTOBER 6, 1947

By this time we had all made the acquaintance of the top brass: Four-Star General Bair and Lieutenant General Fisher. Of course we knew Executive Secretaries Kupiec and Ball, for they issued us a demerit with our new dog tags when we lost ours.

NOVEMBER 27, 1947

Amid icy blasts from the runway, we watched our team fall down fighting in the Gloucester football game. But neither the weather nor the score dampened our feelings, for we knew our eleven displayed the spirit of the Base and had played a brilliant game.

DECEMBER 17, 1947

A lost cadet from Greenwood was found and brought to the base by Radar Expert Kenney.

This morning, our noses discovered that some of Major Gallop's "brain-children" were cooking. The base was relieved to find the odor was not from the cafeteria.

MARCH 16, 1948

Several cadets were A.W.O.L. this morning, but it wasn't their fault. A Lynnfield Community Jet broke down.

JUNE 4, 1948

Today, we cadets watched the solos of the graduating students, in anticipation of our own flights in three years.

"Test Flight W. H. S. Oracle calling Earth!

"Test Flight W. H. S. Oracle calling Earth!

"Come in Test Flight W. H. S. Oracle! Come in!

"Co-Pilots Elinor Pohl and Mike Zarbo reporting on W. H. S. activities aboard the rocket ship Oracle. We have just taken off from Space Station -10 in Spain, where Major Cowing's Spanish Club has had a chance to speak "Espanol" and make many new "amigos." This forced landing was due to one of Captain Cassano's crack riflemen, Robert Hale, who, having lost his glasses in space, missed the target and punctured the atomic fuel line with his Bazooka gun.

"Come in, Earth! Come in! Please increase your broadcasting volume. We cannot make out your messages because of the tremendous roar issuing from the W. H. S. Bandmen practising the latest Earth hit tune, 'Flying Through the Clouds.'

"Leaving Spain we encountered a hostile J-46 from the planet Pluto, which seriously damaged our pressurized hydraulic pumps aft. We were forced to land in Switzerland, where Head Mechanic Dave Battles and his Student Council Crew undertook a major reconstruction job with the Good Grooming Group polishing the chrome, and the W. H. S. Orchestra and Glee Club tuning up the radio.

"While the ship was under repair, Second Lieutenant Staunton's Ski Club gaily explored the picturesque Swiss Alps and tried out their new jet-propelled skis. At the same time Major Barry's Whiz Kids hopped on a jet-propelled air bus bound for Russia, where they studied diplomatic relations. Close at their heels in a super-transonic carrier was the Dramatic Club, which stopped off at Monsieur de Maupassant's School of Stage Production and Elocution. After our take-off, the Sports Club contacted a Melrose High School Space Ship and arranged for a Strato-ball game in the near future. The Lookout Staff, headed by Flight Text Engineer Ella Paton, will prepare for you the official flight record. The Inter Nos, with many helpful instructions from the Chief Rocketline Hostess, Captain Upham, has kept everyone busy throughout the test flight.

"Signing off now. Flight is on schedule. We will land at pre-arranged time."

Synchronizing Pulsers

BY CADET RICHARD MOFF

Our Band is one of our leading organizations. Besides furnishing snappy music at our football games, it presented an outstanding concert in May. Under the capable leadership of Mr. Fanck and his assistant, Leon Bayrd, the band retained its high position among the bands of Massachusetts at this year's Music Festival in Marblehead.

Hear that fine music! Anyone who sits in during the rehearsals of the Orchestra may be proud to know it is affiliated with Wakefield High School. Under the careful instructions of Mr. Joseph Fanck, the Orchestra has practiced faithfully and diligently in order to provide entertainment throughout this school year.

Our musicians presented many choice numbers between the acts of the Senior Play, at the annual Spring Concert, and at the commencement exercises. We are proud of our musical classmates.

Air Songsters

BY KAYDETTE MARY MUSE

Under the capable and patient guidance of Mrs. Samuel Walter, the Girls' Glee Club has presented a year of very enjoyable entertainment. Comprised of girls from each class, the group meets during homeroom period on Wednesday. Peggy Sias was the able pianist for the chorus. Two outstanding events which showed the excellent results of Mrs. Walter's expert supervision and the girls' faithfulness in attending the rehearsals were the Christmas Pageant and the Spring Concert.

El Club de Espanol

BY KAYDETTE CAROL CASSIDY

The Spanish Club of Wakefield High School, under the direction of Senorita Elena Cowing, is one of our most interesting and active organizations. The club, whose main purpose is to establish a better understanding of the language and customs of the Spanish people, is composed of students who have studied Spanish at the high school. Officers include the Senoritas "Leonor" Pohl, President; "Marta" DeWolf, Secretary; "Rosita" Polley, Program Chairman; and "Lora" Harris, Treasurer.

Meetings are held monthly at the various homes of the members. Unusual Spanish programs of this year have included a Christmas party, a card party, a Mexican supper, and a lecture, all prepared and enjoyed by the students.

Ground Control Stars

BY CADET FORREST PAIGE

The refusal to be hampered by long standing tradition, plus progressive ideas and invaluable support from the faculty, has contributed towards one of the most prosperous and beneficial seasons ever enjoyed by a Student Council at Wakefield High School. This year's Student Council not only promoted several successful canteens, but also established a Student Court for the purpose of dealing with infractions of school regulations. The Court was composed of one judge and two advisers. It was vigorously backed by Headmaster Kinder, who also outlined the basic principles of the Court.

Members of the Student Council attended the Conference of Student Councils of Massachusetts in Newton, where they were able to formulate many new ideas for future reference.

From money made at dances and canteens, the Council has built up a substantial balance in its treasury, giving next year's members a comfortable working margin with which to begin the year.

The Student Council owes a great deal to the assistance of adviser Gerard Barry, who has been instrumental in its success, and also to the Seniors on the Council who supplied the experience necessary for a creditable performance.

This year's Council has started a new program in student government at Wakefield High which will be carried on by the alert, conscientious juniors and sophomores.

Packaged Superpower

BY KAYDETTE LOUISE WINBERG

In the distance we see the Majorettes marching in perfection with their batons shining in the sunlight. These snappy majorettes in their white uniforms are headed by Pat Henchey. They have attended all the football games and have entertained the spectators by demonstrating their ability to use the batons. The eleven girls practice faithfully every Wednesday in the Armory. Under the able leadership of Miss Elizabeth Upham, the girls have progressed steadily. Every year the majorettes have a dance to help pay their expenses. This year the dance was held on March 31, 1951. The following girls make up the regular squad: Pat Henchey, Jane Temple, Lillian Paon, Dorothy Temple, Elizabeth Cusato, Jean Catalano, Janet Millar, Lois Drady, Joan English, Shirley Bemister and Claire Cassidy.

Sports Club Rockettes

BY CADET FORREST PAIGE

When Wakefield High was so fortunate as to procure Mr. Earle Crompton from Connecticut, it also obtained his progressive conception of extra-curricula management — one of which is the Sports Club. The thrifty members of this organization buy a ticket allowing them to see all home athletic events at a reduced price. It costs a Sports Club member only thirteen cents to see each event, while less thoughtful students are paying thirty-five cents and up.

The Sports Club has sponsored two dances: The Halloween Party and the Winter Carnival. There have been few dances so entertaining as the Halloween Party. It has been surpassed only by the Winter Carnival which far excelled in beauty and originality any other dance held at Wakefield High in the last four years. Much credit goes to the creative designing of Carol Crocker and her untiring group of freshmen helpers. These original dances have set a new standard at Wakefield High.

This club exemplifies the spirit of Wakefield High's new trend towards progressiveness. The predominating influence of good cheer and friendship has a noticeable effect upon the student body.

BY KAYDETTE ELLA PATON

The Lookout has spent a successful year with Ella Paton as Editor-in-Chief, Marilyn Curley as Business Manager, and Miss Harriet D. Dunning as Faculty Manager. Since production costs were mounting, the Lookout staff introduced the offset printing method that enabled the Lookout not only to continue its existence, but also to improve by including more pictures and illustrations. The circulation climbed, leaving the Lookout firmly established as the newspaper of Wakefield High School and the medium of understanding between the students and faculty.

Rocket-Pilot Daredevils

BY CADET RONALD LENGYEL

The purpose of the Ski Club is the creation and promotion of interest and enthusiasm among skiers of Wakefield High School. Many activities have accomplished this goal. Occasional ski trips to New Hampshire and jaunts to western Massachusetts are but a few of the events. Beginners wishing aid can get it from capable instructors. A Winter Carnival is the highlight of every season. For a fitting climax to the year, there is a banquet for the members of this lively group. The meetings are held twice a month with Mr. Harold Staunton, faculty adviser. The cost of membership is an initiation fee plus twenty-five cents a month as dues.

Our Shooting Stars

BY KAYDETTE MARY MUSE

The Wakefield High School Rifle Club has become one of the most popular school organizations during the past year. Mr. Joseph Cassano, the club's efficient supervisor, instructs the members in the safety of handling and using the rifle. This information is effective at target practice held bi-weekly at the Greenwood School. The group also holds one business meeting each week at the high school. This past year the National Rifle Association has furnished bullets, an arrangement which gives the club more chance for practice. During the football season the members sold programs to raise money to supply the club with more rifles.

A girls' division is under the process of being established, and it is hoped that it will be one of the finest in the Suburban Interscholastic Rifle League, of which it is a member.

The officers are as follows:

President: Robert Hale
Vice-President: Gladys Malonson
Secretary-Treasurer: Norma King
Executive Officer: Mark Odiorne

Interplanetary Debaters

BY CADET RICHARD YEO

Amid the bedlam of voices raised in argument, the Junior Forum discusses many of the world's problems with sound reasoning and logic.

Meeting once monthly, the organization talks over topics of school, national, and international life. Usually a panel of four members of the club gives short speeches which are followed by general discussion from the floor. Each member has a turn as a critic, making a constructive report to help improve a speaker's delivery. By this device the members learn some phases of parliamentary procedure and acquire good speech habits. In addition, the organization presents two assemblies on vital topics. The participants naturally conquer fear of crowds and enjoy audience response.

Mr. Gerard Barry is the adviser for the group. The officers for 1950-1951 are as follows:

President: Richard Yeo

Vice-President: Lois Johnson

Secretary: Betty Cross

Although small in size, the Forum is valuable as a training ground for America's future voters.

Rocket Launchers

BY CADET RICHARD YEO

Curtain going up! Once again Wakefield Rocket Base's Dramatic Club provided an outlet for thespian ability.

A good-sized group of potential actors and actresses gathered this year for the purpose of improving themselves by participation in plays and entertaining others through presentation of their productions.

In want of a name for their youthful group they called it the Mask. The members of the Mask have worked industriously on several one-act plays. Among them are "The Pampered Darling" and a radio play.

For those pupils who are interested in any media pertaining to dramatics and who like enjoyment while working, the Mask under the able sponsorship of Mr. Frank Murtha, is made to order.

The Inter Nos Club of Wakefield High School, under the leadership of Dean Elizabeth Upham, is composed of girls interested in meeting new friends and in gaining new social experiences.

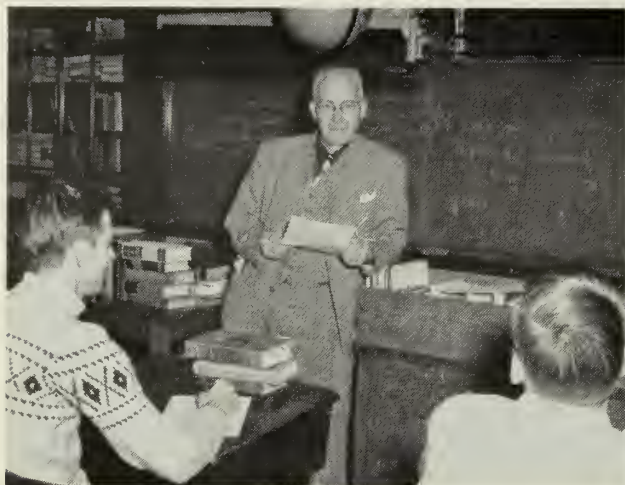

The meetings are held monthly at the high school and the club strives to provide an unusual and entertaining program of events throughout the year. This year, the events have included a hayride, a food sale, a beauty lecture, a "snow party," a covered dish supper, a beach party, a Russell Curry Canteen, and an annual tea at the Hartshorne House.

SUPERSONIC TRAINEES

DON-PIERCE

Memo

TO: Pilots Peggy Sias and Joseph Tecce
FROM: Medical Officer Ronald Lengyel
SUBJECT: Recruit Readiness

All cadets are now physically capable of making a rocket flight. However, the interest shown by the recruits in the fitness course prompted the organization of a competitive athletic program. This new program was diversified and graduated to include all who wished to participate.

One step above the regular training course is the Intra-Barracks League for all activities requiring only equipment used in the general program. Kaydettes and cadets alike took part in these leagues. The tennis tournaments came to a thrilling end with the match between Lea Bates and Phil DeSimone. Lea defeated "Sleepy" in straight sets.

Two groups which met teams from other rocket bases were the Varsity and Junior Varsity. In every contest the members of these teams proved themselves athletes, fighters, and gentlemen.

The play of John "Red" Porter, Bill Paige, Angelo "Tiger" Roberto, recruit sensation Louis Lopresti, Bob Luken, and John Kostandin was outstanding in the football game with the Melrose Rocket Launching Base. Because of these Cadets, we tied a highly-favored team. The basketball team, led by Cadet Porter, proved itself by defeating a group of Rocket Service veterans. The hockey players, mostly new recruits, played well in every game. Cadet Joseph Rich was issued a new pair of hockey pants to replace the pair he wore out in trips to the penalty box. Tracksters Arnold Levine and Harold Low won every meet they entered except the All-Base Track Meet. No report can be made on the baseball team as its schedule is not yet completed. The entire team was quarantined when Dick Scanlon contracted the highly contagious disease, Terpsichorean Twist!

The cadets are now in top condition. When the day of departure arrives, they will be ready.

Our Glide Bombers

BY CADET WILLIAM LAWRENCE

With only two veterans remaining, Joseph Rich and Charles Higgins, capable Charles Kirk whipped the 1951 team into shape. Building for next year's team, Coach Kirk put many sophomores and juniors into the lineup. Seniors on the team are co-captains Charles Higgins and Joseph Rich, Robert Windt and William Lawrence. Despite difficult practice conditions, the Kirkmen worked hard, and, playing a fine brand of hockey, overcame hard luck and tough competition.

The games and scores are as follows:

Wakefield	1	Natick	4
Wakefield	1	Brookline	1
Wakefield	1	Malden	6
Wakefield	1	Lexington	6
Wakefield	4	Somerville	5
Wakefield	1	Dedham	4
Wakefield	3	Hudson	3

Our Thunderbolts

BY CADET ANGELO ROBERTO

Three cheers for our new head coach, Tom O'Donnell! Not only has he introduced a fascinating and successful system of football to our gridmen, but also he has won the admiration and esteem of his associates.

Through the fine work done by Coach O'Donnell and Assistant Coach Tighe, the team progressed rapidly. Despite their losses, the boys displayed an enthusiasm and spirit of which Wakefield can justly be proud. A new sensation in the person of Louis LoPresti arose from the obscurity of the Junior Varsity to captivate the attention of the spectators with his passing and deceptive ball handling. The Melrose game, which ended in a tie, was the season thriller. With less than a minute left to play, Chubby LoPresti ran for a touchdown and Dekker DeRoche, making his debut, kicked the equalizing point. The second half of the Gloucester game is the most memorable of the season, since it was then that the O'Donnellmen attained true glory. The passing and receiving combination of Louis LoPresti to Red Porter accounted for all three touchdowns; furthermore, Red kicked both points.

Our Bombing Basketeers

BY CADET JOSEPH TECCE

This year's quintet of Warrior hoopsters has performed well, considering the fact that only three varsity players are holdovers from last year's squad and the team has no official captain. However, with these few veterans, and several boys who have gained experience outside high school competition, Coach Colucci, with his vast knowledge of basketball, has his team rated highly in league standings.

Jimmy Donovan, a former Lexington hoopster, is a diminutive "iron man" and a good ball handler. Another veteran is Red Porter, a six-foot forward who is in his fourth year as a Warrior regular. Dick Smith, another six-foot veteran, is the Warriors' top man on backboard control at almost every engagement.

A pleasant surprise of the 1951 basketeers is Jim Stanton, who is Wakefield's leading scorer. Dick Scanlon's keen eye and Ed Schmidt's hook shot have also contributed much to the Warriors' offense.

The second team, coached by Jack Kochiss, has progressed and has gained well-needed experience in each of its games. Come mid-season, the Junior Varsity should attain its top form and go through with frequent victories.

Our Guided Missiles

BY KAYDETTE BETSY BENSON

"Please do not lob the ball," is an expression familiar to our bowling athletes. Throughout this school year, twenty enthusiastic teams have presented great competition by bowling weekly at the Sunlite Alleys. Under the direction of Miss Nichols, they have improved their scores and have had much fun in their practice session.

The Archerettes

BY DORNE EATON

Every fair day our Wakefield High archers work busily on the athletic field. Under the expert instruction of Miss Katharine Nichols, the girls have learned the fundamentals of the sport and have discovered also what fun archery is. So proficient have the girls become that tournament play will soon be a reality. Who are the leaders? Just look at the picture for the answer. ALL are experts.

Air Relayers

By KAYDETTE LORRAINE SMITH

This year's badminton team has had a rousing season because of energetic practice under the guidance of our experienced teacher, Miss Katharine Nichols. The girls have learned the fundamentals of serving, scoring, and the general rules of the game. They have played many single and double matches with members of their teams to improve their skill. Some of the outstanding players from last year are Lois Windt, Esther Ham, Lea Bates, and Joanne Whittaker. We are proud of our classmates who have set a splendid record for the novices to emulate.

Interplanetary Flightees

By KAYDETTE CYNTHIA PETRUCCI

About fifty girls enjoyed field hockey this year under the capable leadership of Miss Katharine Nichols. Every Monday and Thursday were practice sessions. There were three teams, A, B, and C, of which A and B were in the playoffs. Lea Bates did well by scoring two goals for Team A, and Evelyn Della Russo and Mary Hurton one goal each for Team B, making the score 2-2. Other players who have contributed to a fine season are Joanne Whittaker, Nancy Burke, and Lillian Catalano.

The Robots

BY KAYDETTE MARY MUSE

A large number of enthusiastic girls turned out another successful year of basketball. The upperclassmen met twice a week in the gym or armory, alternating with the boys' basketball team. The freshmen met weekly under the supervision of the Senior girls.

Miss Nichols, the girls' gym coach, assisted by Miss Cleaves and Miss Bunker, instructed the girls in the technique of the sport. Basketball games were played with Stoneham, Wilmington, and the Our Lady of Nazareth Academy. At the end of the season, play-offs were held between the senior and junior teams, and the freshman and sophomore teams.

Our Racqueteers

BY KAYDETTE PEGGY SIAS

The winner of the fall Tennis Tournament, which was for all girls who knew how to play and score tennis, was Kaydette Leslie Bates. She has won the tournament for four years and should be commended! Runner-up this year was Kaydette Isobel Rafuse.

The tournament, which is set up by Miss Nichols, includes the names of all who signed with her. But there her job ends, except for writing the names of the winner of each round. The games are played on the girls' own time; they arrange their own dates and courts, and score their rounds.

A round consists of one set, but the final is two out of three sets. Some of the close games played were between Betsy Benson and Claire Tyler, 7-5; and Mary Hurton and Jayne Schwarz, 7-5; Janet Bair and Evelyn Burgess battled 9-7; and Winner Leslie Bates and Sally Millar fought to 8-6. Tennis is one of the favorite sports at the Rocket Base.

Our Speed Demons

By CADET EDWARD KENT

The prospects didn't look too good last spring with only two track lettermen, Arnold Levine and Dick Smith returning to the squad; but determination drove the boys to turn their smoking heels on every opponent except Winchester. Dick Smith, our high scorer, and Roger Mildram left all other opponents behind at 5' 4" and went on to break the class C state high jump record with an unbelievable 5' 8". In the state meet Wakefield picked up 1 point from Bruce Henderson's speed, 1 point from the Taylor-Levine-Smith-Henderson relay team and 2/3 of a point from the high-flying Dick Smith. With only two lettermen on the squad, the team turned in a commendable 9th place in the state meet. In the spring of '51, with seven lettermen returning to the squad, the team, as well as their coach, expect the team to come out on top.

REPORT OF FLIGHT OFFICERS BETTY CROSS AND ROBERT LITTLEWOOD

I. May 29—Squadron “51” receives its Strato-Suits in preparation for the launching of the Rocket Ship W. H. S. Oracle. Arnold Salvati, Doug Morley, Kathy Creedon, Mal Curley, and the recruits of Squadron “52” gaze longingly at the proud cadets. We have a hint for the Aeronautical Clothing Corporation—they can use the extra material from Joanne Whittaker’s and Mary Meuse’s outfits to give the much needed length to those of Phil DeSimone and Larry Dower.

* * * * *

II. May 31—We have turned our backs on Wakefield Rocket Aviation Base and anticipate the high-flight skyward in our Space Ship W. H. S. Oracle. This year’s squadron received a solid basic training in the mechanics and operation of Space Ships, qualifying the graduates to meet the challenge of the future.

* * * * *

III. June 4—Preparation Rocket is ending. The Cadets’ Flight Banquet is held as a closing assembly before the launching date. At this time the squadron history was given as well as the will and the prophecy. These reports were followed by a final briefing.

* * * * *

IV. June 7—“Cadets Receive Wings.” This headline flashes across the front page of the W. R. A. B. Star Gazer. Commandant Kinder presents the 211 cadets of Squadron “51” with their wings and wishes each clear flying into the future. And then come the orders of the day over the base’s supersonic signal system—“Let the Rocket Roar!” The Cadets wait breathlessly while the seconds are counted — 5-4-3-2-1-0. “Skyward!” crashing the unknown, the Class of 1951 goes forth into the future.

RICHARD SCANLON

11 Highland Avenue

Dick is the boy with the genial smile which brightens many a faded hour. He did very well in baseball and basketball, both of which are his hobbies. The friendly atmosphere is what he likes best about Wakefield High. You've contributed much of it, Dick. Keep smiling!

ELEANOR SCARPETTI

85 Water Street

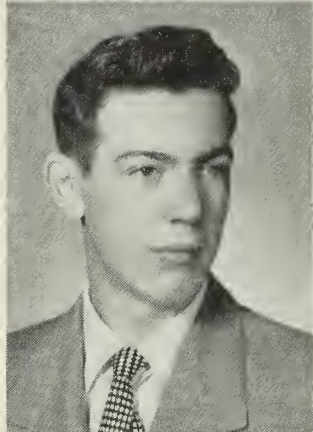

If in search of a marvelous dancer, just call on Eleanor. However, she doesn't spend all of her time in dancing. Her skill at bowling and sewing are proof of this. Her interest in typewriting and shorthand is indicative of a competent secretary — her ambition.

PETER SCHINDLER

Crystal Street

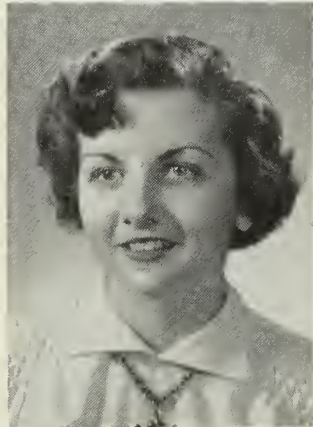

An ardent Red Sox fan, Peter may some day be broadcasting baseball games, for he plans to become a radio announcer . . . pet peeve is people who say "George" . . . advises underclassmen to establish a good academic foundation in their first two years, and later enjoy themselves while they continue good work.

EDWARD SCHMIDT

15 Pearl Street

His ever-present smile and satirical wit have made Edward one of our outstanding students. Among his accomplishments is that in basketball where his ball handling and deadly hook shot have catapulted Edward into a high spot on the varsity squad. The Navy will have him soon after graduation.

ELAINE SEABURY

8 Quannapowitt Avenue

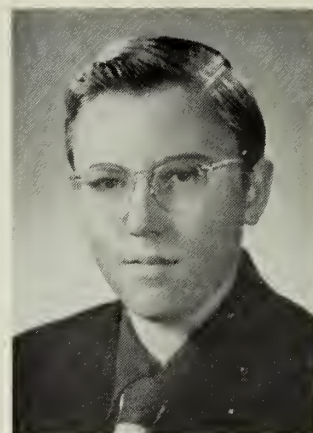

Elaine is a busy young Miss, indeed! Her many activities include the Senior Play Candy and Usher Committee, Class Photography Committee, Good Grooming Group, and Sports Club. She definitely likes the students of W. H. S. more than anything else. Upon graduating, Elaine plans to do office work.

DONALD SEARS

Lincoln Avenue

Lynnfield Center

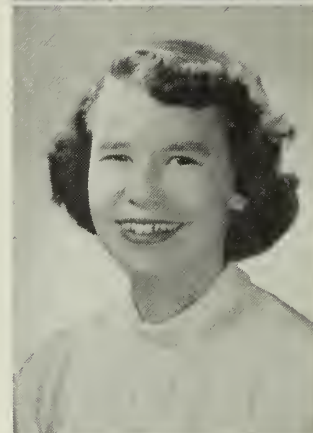

Donald, a sports loving fellow, is a member of the Rifle Club and of his homeroom basketball team. His hobbies are trapping, hunting, and automobiles. After graduation Donald will enter a school of accounting where he will study to become a Certified Public Accountant.

CLAIRE SHAW

Kingmont Street

A Greenwoodite, Claire's amiability and genuine zest for sports have been displayed in bowling, golf, basketball, softball, and field hockey. She also served on the Prophecy Committee, and as Co-Chairman of the Senior Play Transportation Committee. Mount Auburn School of Nursing is her September destination.

Aside from being Exchange Editor of the Lookout, a member of the Junior Forum, and Glee Club Accompanist, she plays the piano, writes poetry, and collects quotations . . . expects to attend college in Florida, then teach music in schools . . . finds the Government Class enjoyable.

HERBERT SIMPSON

11 Lakeview Avenue

Among our conscientious students is Herbie. He is always ready to have fun. Aside from being a stalwart football player, he gained additional fame from his part in the Senior Play. He is a member of the Sports Club and in his spare time enjoys bowling and radio repairing.

BRUCE SLEEPER

34 Essex Street
Lynnfield Center

Bruce's keen interest in hunting, fishing, and baseball shows his appreciation of outdoor life . . . his advice is not to fool around in Mr. Cassano's rooms and to keep up the school spirit . . . has no pet peeve . . . former second-team basketball . . . he looks forward to a federal job in conservation work.

JOHN SLOCUMB

7 Byron Street

John proves the statement "good things come in small packages." This ever smiling classmate was the epitome of efficiency as a member of the Senior Play Stage Crew. In his vast stamp collection are many colorful stamps from foreign countries. We share John's praise of our fine teachers.

RUTH SLOCUMB

7 Byron Street

Ruth is an active participant in bowling, field hockey, and basketball . . . She plans to become a laboratory technician at the Boston Dispensary. Her pet peeve is people taking their time when she is in a hurry. Her hobbies are dancing and skating.

LORRAINE SMITH

61 Bellevue Road

None of us needs an introduction to Lorraine, one of our most prominent classmates. Her work on the Senior Play and Junior Prom Committees as well as a Classbook Staff and Glee Club member is especially admirable. Lorraine, who praises our school's democratic elections, will make someone an efficient stenographer.

RICHARD SMITH

286 Albion Street

Dick, a popular and vivacious Senior, plans to join the Navy. His activities include track, basketball, and Classbook Business Staff . . . Hobbies — fishing and hunting . . . likes friendliness of his fellow students best about W. H. S. . . . advice to underclassmen — "Don't give up the ship."

VINCENT TESTA

30 Sweetser Street

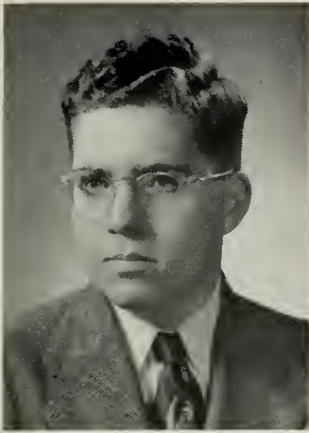

"Vinnie," with his ready wit and love of practical jokes, is tops on our popularity list. Any problems concerning automobiles can be readily solved by Wakefield High's promising mechanic. He is undecided about his future, but we predict a brilliant career for him in the automotive industry.

ALAN TRUESDALE

11 Cristofaro Street

Alan's hobbies include model airplanes, model trains, photography, and shop work. He has been active in the school Band, as Stage Hand and as Electrician for the Senior Play . . . is gifted in dramatics . . . is ambitious to attend Tufts Engineering School.

ALLAN TURNER

71 Madison Avenue

Allan, one of our dignified Seniors, who thinks his teachers expect him to know too much, plans to enter the Coast Guard or Navy after graduation . . . likes basketball and stamp-collecting, and says that, despite their expectations, most of his teachers have been wonderful.

RUTH VAN DEMARK

27 Bryant Street

A lover of music, Ruth likes to dance, play the piano, and records, especially semi-classical. Ruthie's pet peeve is staying after school with a class for a few pupils who couldn't behave themselves . . . future plans are "very undecided" . . . she advises underclassmen to keep out of trouble and not to gossip.

ETHEL VIDITO243 Franklin Street
Reading

Rusty, as she is better known to all her friends, is a petite and charming young miss. Her pet peeve is listening to noisy freshmen. She admits, however, that their enthusiastic support is needed at the games and events. Her advice to underclassmen is not to cut classes.

PATRICIA WALSH

111 Parker Road

Our Kinescopers

BY KAYDETTE SUSAN WILLIAMS

Early in October, 1950, the Senior Play Committee, consisting of two representatives from each Senior homeroom, was elected and assembled for its first meeting under the leadership of Miss Eleanor Abbott. During subsequent meetings the play itself, A DATE WITH JUDY, was chosen; and those committees necessary for the successful production of our play were formed from members of the Senior Class.

On October 18, tryouts were held in the library under the capable direction of Diane Purtell and Carol Cassidy, co-chairmen of the Senior Play Committee. The judges — Miss Abbott, Miss Doyle, Miss Caswell, Mr. Staunton, and Mr. Fulton — chose from the many hopeful contenders the following casts:

	Friday	Saturday
Judy Foster .....	Esther Ham	Diane Purtell
Melvin Foster .....	Ralph Philbrook	William Hale
Dora Foster .....	Ann Hildreth	Gloria Day
Randolph Foster .....	William Lawrence	Robert Hatfield
Hannah, (the maid) .....	Peggy Sias	Mary Louise Cuddy
Barbara Winsocket .....	Marian Weeks	Ann Quinlan
Oogie Pringle .....	David Battles	Richard Yeo
Mitzi Hoffman .....	Georgine Maltby	Martha DeWolf
Mr. Martindale .....	Robert Littlewood	Malcolm Dunbar
Mrs. Hotchkiss .....	Sylvia Nauss	Leslie Bates
Eloise Hotchkiss .....	Barbara Moser	Susan Williams
Mrs. Schlutzhammer .....	Mildred Cutter	Phyllis Polley
Rexford O'Conner .....	Herbert Simpson	Forrest Paige
Susie O'Conner .....	Marcia Stuart	Joanne Whittaker

After all preliminary excitement had died away, Mr. Harold Staunton, our remarkably patient director, retired to the auditorium with his casts for daily rehearsals.

On December eighth and ninth the play was a smashing success, playing to full houses. Congratulations, Class of '51!

PERSONALIZED PORTRAITS

and it's all done with

OFFICIAL PHOTOGRAPHER FOR CLASS OF 1951

There's magic in lights . . . add a light here, place a spotlight there, and your portrait takes on the appearance of real form and individuality.

Your Vantine photographer knows how lighting effects can be best used. . . . How easily they can reflect your personality.

Your Vantine photographer knows best how to secure the sharply etched photograph your engraver desires of the important senior year. . . . The victories of the athletic teams. . . . The brilliance of social occasions. . . . The Prom. . . . The plays. . . . The debates. . . . The expression of everyday life on the campus.

That personalized portraits by Vantine are important is attested to by the fact that over 300 schools and colleges repeatedly entrust their photographic work to Vantine.
